Your LuMing Chart

*This is a LuMing Chart based on birth time, which contains Chinese symbols. It's not important to not understand the meaning of these symbols.

I . INTRODUCTION

You have a great desire for money, and since childhood, you have been exposed to good education, and you have a very stable job. The things that trouble you the most happen in terms of money and marriage. Your heterosexual relationship is not good, you prefer quiet, do not like communication, and are a bit lonely.

You lack courage and don't like to try new things, so you don't have much social interaction and have few friends. You have a strong moral sense and are quite traditional. In some years, you will have a lot of expenses. You have some health issues, but they haven't had much impact.

You are very kind to your parents, you lack friends, and you spend most of your time at home. You need to make more friends and participate in more outdoor activities, which is helpful for you.

In recent years, you have always had many troubles, which come from your parents' health issues, love, and marriage. In the coming year, you will still be in the midst of these troubles, and it will not be until the following year that the situation may gradually change.

II . Know Yourself

You are very sensitive to wealth and material possessions, and you have a good sense of money, making you suitable for work in accounting, finance, and other fields. But placing too much emphasis on money can make people around you feel that you lack kindness and affect your marriage and making friends.

During your growth, your parents have a great influence on you. They often argue, but ultimately they can't do without each other. Your career is stable, but you are not satisfied. You believe that your career has not met your expectations. In the past, you often worried about money, and most of your income came from your career or real estate investments.

You are not good at expressing yourself, which makes it difficult for colleagues around you to communicate better with you. You always bear it silently and dare not fight for your own interests. Therefore, you often lose some job opportunities.

In recent years, you have felt a lot of pressure, your career has stagnated, and you always do more work, but without recognition from your leaders.

Your body is starting to deteriorate, your liver and gallbladder function are poor, and you lack courage. You need to encourage yourself, be confident, and bravely fight for your rights.

You haven't gotten married yet, and it's always difficult to complete the last step. You rarely have friends of the opposite sex, lack attractiveness, and always miss out on many opportunities.

You believe that a man's work ability is important and that only enough money can bring happiness, which makes many people afraid to fall in love with you.

You often worry about your parents' health. Your parents are not in good health, so you spend more time taking care of them, which makes you feel tired.

The Reasons for the Formation of Destiny

Your biggest worry comes from love and marriage, because you always miss out on many people and have poor heterosexual relationships. Now that you are not young, you are worried about fertility issues. Therefore, your biggest concern is when you can meet someone you like and get married.

You lack sufficient attractiveness, and you don't like to express yourself in public. You always disguise yourself, making people feel cold and difficult to approach. You think you haven't met the right person, but you always want to get married as soon as possible. You have spent many years in conflict.

Personality determines fate. In the past, you tried to accept some people and fall in love. But in the end, it still didn't come to the end. You both thought that the other person wasn't the one you wanted.

Through LuMing, we can identify the best years of love and change ourselves, making ourselves charming and attracting more suitable people.

Detailed Wealth Guidance

In 2020, 2022, and 2023, these are the years when you are most likely to fall in love, and in these years, you often get many opportunities. Of course, you missed those opportunities in 2020 and 2022.

In 2020, the breakup was due to financial issues. You tried to find someone who could meet your financial needs, so you ended up breaking up with them. And because of my father's illness, you spent a lot of money on treatment.

Last year, you had the opportunity to fall in love, but in the end, didn't get together. The problems come from multiple sources, but most of them are due to money and insufficient communication.

The second half of this year is a great opportunity. You may meet him at work and through introductions from friends, and next year is a good time to get married. According to LuMing's rules, your chances of falling in love will increase. You will encounter someone who is intelligent, ambitious, and has a certain level of material security, who meets the requirements in your heart. You will be together, and next year is suitable for getting married, but in 2025, you may have some arguments, but it won't affect too much. In 2024 and 2025, it's your wedding year, although it's a bit late, meeting the person you like is good.

You can't miss 2024 and 2025 again. If you don't seize the opportunity, it may take longer to wait. As you age, this may lead to a loss of confidence in marriage, and in terms of fertility, older age means more risks.

Deep down in your heart, you still have a strong desire for marriage, so you have been waiting for the right person and striving to seize the opportunities for the next two years.

Years that Affect Marriage

Although getting married late, there are still some issues that arise during your interactions.

You are a very filial person, and you have spent a lot of time and money on your parents' affairs. In the past two years, due to your parents' illness, you have been busy. Similarly, this matter may affect life after marriage. You will need to work hard to balance this issue and achieve a perfect outcome for various things. Otherwise, it may make your husband unhappy.

In 2025, you will have some minor arguments, but they will eventually be well resolved.

In 2026, you need to spend more time in your own family and not overlook your husband's thoughts.

In 2028 and 2029, your household expenses will be high and may cause financial problems. So in 2028 and 2029, you need to pay attention to your financial crisis and be prepared in advance.
